

Local and Personal

Miss Zephra Callison has a light attack of the la grippe.

Geo. W. Patty of Solana, N. M. came down on the 12th on business.

E. W. Clark of Logan, N. M., was in town this week on business.

E. H. Mootz of Dalhart, Texas, is down for a few days on business.

C. M. Owen and wife came down from Campana, N. M., on the 12th.

W. M. York of Solana, N. M., is in town on business this week.

J. N. Gamble and family of Amarillo, Texas, have located in Tucumcari.

J. C. Haartje of Vincennes, Ind. has been in the city this week looking around.

Mrs. John Mathews is building a neat two-room cottage in the Russell addition.

Wm. A. Schubel of Texhoma, has been in town this week looking after business interests.

Rev. Wilson and family occupied the new parsonage to the South Methodist Church last week.

Bell & Martin have placed a new addition on the market, the Southwestern and Rock Island Addition.

Two parties from Tennessee, Messrs. Taylor and Murry, arrived Wednesday. They are looking for a farm.

A. D. Gaudin has let the contract for a $1200 cottage to be built near the South Methodist Church.

John Wilcox and wife moved into their new house this week, just recently erected in the Russell addition.

W. D. Tolle of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company of El Paso, Texas, has been in town on business.

E. S. Barker is here from Texico visiting his sister, Miss Fannie Barker, who is teaching in the public schools here.

J. C. Conrin, representing the Morrin-Powers Company, wholesale liquor dealers of Kansas City, was in town Monday.

The young people of the Epworth League are planning to give a box supper at the church on Friday night, November 22nd.

Fletcher H. Thompson, representative of the L. C. P. of Rochester, N. Y., has been in town for a few days on business.

C. D. Wright of Gassoway, W. Va., came in Wednesday from the east. He is here prospecting and is very much pleased with the outlook.

Six filings were made before the United States Court Commissioner N. V. Gallegos, on the 12th, and each day there are made here from two five or six filings. Every day brings a large number of prospectors from all parts of the country.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church have organized a Christian Endeavor Society. They meet each Sunday at 6:45 p. m.

W. A. Gamble of Amarillo, Texas, has come to Tucumcari to locate. Mr. Gamble is a brother of L. P. Gamble of the firm of Gamble & Askew.

In the case of the Territory vs. Sam Hardwick, which was reported in last week's News, the jury disagreed after a long deliberation and were discharged.

Among new industries added to Tucumcari in the last few weeks is a cement brick factory, located on the north side, which is just opening up for business.

C. B. Walker left Wednesday for Old Mexico where he goes to take a position and to make his home. His friends regretted very much to see him leave Tucumcari.

L. P. Gamble is expected to return home in the next two or three days from an extended visit to Dallas, where he attended the fair, then going to South McAlester, Ind. Ter.

Doc. Smith and his retinue were discharged last Saturday night after a three days campaign in the jury room. They had become quite a familiar sight on the streets of Tucumcari.

Commissioner N. V. Gallegos had before him on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the contest case of Claud O'Brannon vs. Geo. A. Harlan's heirs, in re: homestead entry no. 5700.

R. E. Gibney and John Morse, who have been down for a week or so with typhoid fever, are reported to be out of danger. These are the two cases taken in hand last week by the Epworth League.

C. B. Walker has sold his interest in the Reliable Pressing Club, better known as Walker & Littleton Suit Club, to Roy Welch, and henceforth Littleton & Welch will be the style of the partnership.

Rev. J. A. Minton, who is conducting services nightly at the Methodist Church, South, announces that on Sunday night he will talk on the subject "Will We Know Our Friends in Heaven."

Tom Sherwood, son of L. E. Sherwood of Tucumcari left Thursday morning for Texas. We are unable to learn the place of his destination. Tom received congratulations from his many friends here. Tom Sherwood is quite a popular fellow among the young people, and they are glad to learn that he will return shortly. Upon his return his name will then be Mr. Thomas Sherwood. We understand that the girl is very pretty and accomplished. Tom will be working double when he returns.

The Tucumcari Furniture Company, an up-to-date new enterprise for Tucumcari, has received a large shipment of goods. The building is not yet completed, but Mr. Burger hopes to be ready for business in a short time.

The series of protracted service being held at the South Methodist Church is being well attended in spite of the past few days. Dr. J. A. Minton is a very able and interesting speaker and considerable interest is manifested.

Ben Oliver of Texico, has been in Tucumcari this week promoting the Vaughn Townsite. This town is being put on the market on a plan similar to the drawing of the Gamble Addition, and quite a number of our citizens have bought lots.

The play at the skating rink on Monday night wound up with an informal dance. The Hollingsworth Twins Company played their last engagement Tuesday night. If they had remained much longer it is feared they would have gotten a corner on small change.

Mac. N. Stanfill has opened up his office in the Israel building, and has hung out his shingle as dentist. He is being delayed in fitting his office up for business by delay in shipment of office equipment which has been on the road for some weeks. The Doctor is a newcomer here, but says he is a stayer.

A movement is being started to petition the General Land Office at Washington for the establishment of a land office at Tucumcari. On account of the great amount of land entered in this vicinity, this would be a great advantage to Tucumcari and Quay county.

The new round-house and shops of the El Paso & Southwestern system will probably be ready for occupancy in about two weeks. A new brick building is being erected for a storehouse for the keeping of railway supplies. The whole works will soon be ready for business.

W. G. Schieb, manager of the Bittick Brokerage Company of El Paso, Texas, has opened an office over the Union Barber Shop. He will represent that company at this place and do a general brokerage and investment business. Schieb has a large acquaintance in this city, being an old timer with the railroad boys.

In the test case taken before the District Court last week, the Court ruled that the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners would continue to take the full license of $200 for one year for gambling permits for the two months that gambling will continue to be lawful under license. After the first of the year gambling in New Mexico will be all off.

Come Here and Select You a

Trunk
Suit Case
Telescope or Grip

from the largest and best assortment ever shown in Tucumcari. We are headquarters for

Ladies and Gents Furnishments

SOLE AGENTS FOR W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES

GROSS, KELLY & CO.